Each day during the “Taste of Miyagi” event, take a short survey about the food imports.

Your survey will be shared directly with the importers and may help to expand their products to the United States.

Receive a free Miyagi Japan Tote Bag for your participation.

Taste of Miyagi

February 20–March 12, 2019

Miyagi Prefecture is located in the Northeast region of Japan. With it's location on the Pacific Coast, Miyagi is home to some of the best seafood in Japan.

Discover several items imported
directly from Miyagi Prefecture that are not currently available in the United States.

Some featured items include
scallop infused miso,
marinated saba,
Japanese red basil
juice, green tea soba
noodles, organic sun dried genmai rice and more.
