Since 1 June 2017 Harry Elias Partnership and Eversheds have merged to become Eversheds Harry Elias. Harry Elias was founded almost 30 years ago and established an office in Brunei Darussalam in 2012. Eversheds has continued to grow and develop in Asia and the merger is transformational for both sides, creating one of only a few international law firms with a physical presence in Brunei Darussalam.

We are committed to supporting Brunei Darussalam in its political and economic development. Our team can provide full-service capability and we have a particular focus on corporate, employment, international arbitration, intellectual property, litigation and dispute management and regulatory compliance. We are on the panel of bespoke government-linked companies and our clients include local and international banks as well as local subsidiaries of global corporations. We are the counsel of choice for many major projects in the country.

We pride ourselves in training and transferring legal technology and know-how to Brunei Darussalam as we work in close collaboration with our clients. We regularly work alongside our lawyers in Singapore and Malaysia who assist with the many enquiries relating to the state.
